~Steve's anthro project

-Former super-cool Honor Council Chair Steve Spaulding '05 visited our meeting. He is doing a class project on the consensus process used during Honor Council trials. He wants to interview people (Council members and community members) who have been on juries. Honor Council thinks that this is a great idea, and we encourage anyone who has served on a jury to contact Steve. Steve stressed that he is not interested in the specifics of trials, just how different people's voices are heard during the consensus process.

~Diversity training

-Honor Council just completed its diversity training with its advisors, Joe Tolliver and Marilou Allen. Everyone agreed that the training was interesting and informative.

~Faculty Panel

-The faculty outreach committee is currently putting together a faculty panel.

~StuMP

-Julien announced that the StuMP sub-committee will start meeting soon.

~Bouncers

-Julien and Oleg recently attended an Exec. Council meeting, where they learned that SC is currently creating a bouncers program. Students will be paid to check IDs at campus events.

-Our weekly meetings are held on Sundays in the Pendle Hill Room of the DC at 5:00pm. We welcome community members to the public portion!

IV. Moment of silence

Disclaimer: These minutes reflect the opinion of Abby and Laura and are not meant to represent the views of Council or the community. While we recognize that our Honor Council is of course cooler than Georgetown's, we admit that a wrestling match against a D1 school may not be the best way to prove our superiority. We suggest a spelling bee as an alternative.
