

Honor Council Minutes

December 5, 2004

Oleg: Lauren, do you have something you want to share with the whole group?

Lauren: It was just a note to Travis.

Travis: She wants to go out with me.

Oleg: Aw, Honor Council brings people together.

Travis: And separates them.

~Guests

-Emily Pellman '06 visited to see what an Honor Council meeting was like, and Lauren Adriaansen '07 visited from the Bi-Co.

~Review of Minutes

-Oleg and Julien received an email from John Katsos expressing concern about how he and JSAAPP were portrayed in last week's minutes. John later forwarded this email to Abby and Laura. Oleg, Julien, Abby, and Laura agreed that the minutes are intended to discuss Council-relevant material and had accomplished this, but they wanted to see what the rest of Council thought. J.J. said that he thought the minutes did accurately represent Council-relevant issues that were discussed. Travis said that he thought John had legitimate concerns about the tone of the meeting, but that that has nothing to do with the minutes. Nathan thought that there was no reason to change the minutes, especially since the disclaimer explains that the minutes reflect the opinion of Abby and Laura. Overall, Council expressed a desire to keep the minutes as they are.

~Quaker Bouncers

-The Quaker Bouncers are having training this Tuesday at 9:00 and asked Council members to go answer questions about how their actions fit with the Code. Oleg, Julien, Nathan, and Will volunteered to go to the training.

~Form, Content, and Degree of Difficulty

-Form, content, and degree of difficulty posters will go up this week.

~Abstract Reading Club

-The Abstract Reading Club will have its first meeting this Thursday, December 9th in Lunt Café to discuss the Sam abstract. All community members are welcome.

~StuMP Update

-StuMP had another meeting and is working on writing its mission statement.

-Our weekly meetings are held on Sundays in the Pendle Hill Room of the DC at 5:00pm. We welcome community members to the public portion!
