MOMENT OF SILENCE

- Problem Raised Regarding Punctuality of Members at meetings
- Discussed the Librarian Guidelines draft, from which an excerpt will be presented to the community and to the appointments committee.
  - Excerpt and Guidelines to be posted online.
  - Guidelines are a part of a new 'internal Rules of Order,' which are in the process of being created.
    - These will to a certain extent codify Council procedures, however they are not in the Constitution and must be consented upon by each new Council at the beginning of a semester. They are therefore not permanently binding, nor do they restrict future Councils in any way.
  - Edited Librarian Guidelines.
- Consented on posting the Librarian Guidelines and an excerpt of them online and to the SC Appointments Committee.
- Nominations for spring elections open Friday, April 8 and close Sunday, April 10 at midnight.
  - Seniors will vote in spring elections.
- Diversity Training
  - Council will likely work with Elisa Perez and Rob Scabo, who are training Customs people on issues of diversity this year.
- Thanks to Will Coleman for updating the Honor Council Board.
- Faculty Outreach Committee
  - Still working on the Faculty Panel
- Community Outreach
  - Mock Trial to occur April 13.
  - Several Seniors who have never served on a trial have expressed interest in serving on the jury.
- CONFIDENTIAL PORTION
