2. Dining Concerns: John Francone, director of dining services expressed concern about the following:

- Students stealing food and having a negative financial impact
- Students acting like they have a sense of entitlement and violating rules right in front of the D.C. workers. Disrespectful to staff.
- John will talk to all of Honor Council about working with the community on this issue.
- Questions for John:
 - Why can't students take food out? (can be done at BMC)
 - What about getting food for sick friends?
 - What if you don't have time to eat?
 - Jacob: How can we help students see it as disrespecting the staff?
 - Community outreach committee should meet with John and come up with a plan.

3. New Professors: Honor Council members will be assigned to a member of the new faculty to discuss the Honor Code (this includes visiting professors).
