II. Public Portion

A. Carolyn and Katie will have a meeting with coaches to talk to them about the Code, since the coaches never get an orientation to the Code.

B. People have been nominated (but not confirmed) for all our positions in the upcoming election

C. Helene Pollack will come to the meeting next week to observe and to talk about Quakerism – she may become an advisor to Council

D. The chairs are meeting with Jess Lord soon to finish up a letter about the Code that will be included with regular decision applicants' acceptance letters (letters were already sent out with early decision applicants' acceptance letters)

E. Council will meet with Bryn Mawr's Honor Board soon to work on Bi-Co relations concerning the Honor Codes and the general procedures for violations at one school by students from another school

F. Council will have lunch with Greg Kannerstein and Marilou Allen this Friday at 12:30

G. Speeches will be tomorrow from 6:30-7, and elections will be from Monday night to Sunday night

H. The retreat will be February 15-16 at Pendle Hill
