II. Public Portion

A. Resignations – Council talks about the ways that appointing a temporary Chair is discussed in different parts of the Constitution. Article VIII and Article VI Section 3 seem to offer different options for appointing a temporary Chair until elections are held. After much discussion about constitutionality, Council consents to recognize Andrew as Pro Tempore Chair until elections (Executive Council had already consented to appoint him Pro Tempore Chair).

Nominations will be opening very soon for an extended period of time to allow people more time to think about running, and then elections will be held.

B. Committees

1. JSAAPP – Jamey went to their meeting this week. There will be trainings for the TIPS (Training for Intervention Procedures) Program, and Council members may be interested in undergoing the training, which teaches ways of interacting with people who have been drinking.

2. Student Outreach – someone suggested a possible reprise of the “Confront This” shirts from several years ago.

3. Faculty Outreach – needs info from Sam.

4. Security Committee met – they talked about the lockdown and hostile intruder procedures. Sydney updates Council on what was discussed at the meeting.
