I. Moment of Silence

II. Public Portion

A. The candidates for Co-Chair introduce themselves

B. Committee Reports

1. Faculty Outreach –They’re planning on organizing Pizza, Professors, and the Code for the week after Thanksgiving break.
2. Student Outreach – They’re planning a mock trial, and brainstorming shirt ideas
3. Diversity – They discussed the multicultural jurors list, going to affinity group meetings, and having a discussion about diversity and the Code (perhaps teaming up with Diversity House to organize this?).
4. JSAAPP – They talked about last weekend’s problems, including the idea of sending out a mass email before next Halloween reminding people to know their limits and keep the alcohol policy in mind.
5. Security – Didn’t meet in the past week

C. Council discusses the change to new Co-Chairs, thinking about some ways to ease the transition; people feel that the new Chairs should be given some context for decisions Council has made, summarizing some of the major points we talked about when making decisions. Speeches will be on Monday at 6:30 in the DC

D. Council discusses how class representation will be affected by the new Chairs, since all four people running are sophomores, which would lead to a Council with 5 sophomores and 3 juniors. After a very, very lengthy discussion, Council agrees to recommend that SC Exec not run an election for junior rep., since by the time they would be elected there would only be about three weeks left in their term, which seems both impractical and unnecessary. This recommendation will also include some of the issues raised by people who had dissenting opinions.
