I. Moment of Silence

II. Public Portion

A. Committee Reports

1. Student Outreach – they had a poorly-attended but useful Mock Trial
2. Faculty Outreach – Pizza, Professors, and the Code was a success – Council talks about writing minutes for future discussions so people who can't make it can know the gist of the conversations

B. The Chairs met with Jason McGraw and will be meeting with JSAAPP and the SC Presidents to work on speeding up the administration's responses to students about future alcohol-related incidents

C. The Chairs also met with Jess Lord to talk about including a letter to matriculating students emphasizing the importance of the Code at Haverford

D. They also want to meet with Wendy Smith and talk to coaches about the relationship between recruitment and the Code

E. Council discusses having a discussion about the letter to the community about the Darwin resolution – this will be at the beginning of next week's meeting (5:00 in the DC)

F. We'll be meeting with Bryn Mawr's Honor Board next semester to talk about our relationship with them and procedures for students' trials at the other school

G. Daniel presented about plagiarism to a professor's senior sem who had requested someone from Council to talk to her students

H. Nick will be working on putting a history of the Code on our website

I. We discuss some Constitutional issues that have come to light recently

J. Council discusses elections for the senior class reps next semester, and who (if anyone) should re-run – we'll decide about this next week.
