

Next meeting: Sunday, November 9, 2003. 5 p.m., Bryn Mawr Room of the Dining Center.

Members Present: Lauren Hradecky (Co-President); Nate Favini (VP); David Poolman and Greg Reed (Co-Treasurer); Spencer Walters and Joshua Mertz (Co-Secretaries); Samara Thomas (BMC); Karl Blumenthal and Amy Havassy (Gummere); James Chappel (Comfort); Aleem Ahmed (Barclay); Rachel Moston and Arie Beitman (Lloyd); Andrew Katz and Adam Goldstein (HCA); and Sarah Riehl (Jones)

I. Moment of Silence

II. Project Report – Lauren Hradecky

- Bus out of Philly will begin this Friday, November 7 and will leave Philly at 1 a.m. and 2:30 a.m. Final location of pick-up will be decided Monday morning. The Dean's Office is splitting with SC the cost of this program for this semester – approximately $300 per night.
- Lauren and Jon are contacting some local alumni attorneys to see if any might be available for students who might have legal questions or problems and are unfamiliar with the local judicial system.
- Lauren and Jon are in contact with External Relations about the Home for the Holidays program. Local Haverford-related families will host students who can't go home for major holidays. This is a great way to get a home-cooked meal and to meet some interesting Haverford people.
- FIG. Checking in on the status of the Boards and how well they're working for the student body. Feedback seems positive so far.

III. Yellow Bike Project – Aleem Ahmed

- Aleem raised as an idea at the last meeting the possibility of getting a bunch of bikes that are shared publicly among students, either very informally (folks take them and leave them wherever they're going) or more formally (folks check them out of the library). Aleem has emailed the folks at Carleton who run their program, and a large part of it is having pretty crappy bikes that don't get stolen and having a club that is able to fix the bikes. Aleem is meeting on Thursday with the head of Bryn Mawr's program, which is run through Canaday Library, from which folks can check bikes out.

IV. Activities Committee Report (SC Co-Secretaries)

- The Screw Your Roommate dance is on Saturday, November 8, 2003. That is soon. Introductions will be in Marshall at 6:30 p.m. and Founders dance will run from 11 p.m. to 3 a.m.
- Suggestions are being taken for Snow Ball. Email scan@go.haverford.edu to voice your opinions about food, music, and karaoke/ activities at Snow Ball. Apparently, the Philly Phanatic might be coming or at least that's what I heard. Did you hear that? I don't know, somebody told me.

V. Appointments Committee Report (Vice President)

- Appointed Patrick Stewart '07 to the Committee on Investment and Social Responsibility.
- Appointed Matthew Schechter '04 to Haverfest Head.

V. General Concerns – Dorm Rep Thoughts

- Aleem Ahmed raised the issue of Styrofoam cups in the D.C. being pretty environmentally unfriendly. Others relayed that this has been brought up a number of times, and paper cups are apparently much, much more expensive than Styrofoam cups. Aleem is determined to talk to John Francone, however, and all present agreed that environmental sustainability is a good thing, at least on some level.
- Samara Thomas was interested in possibly changing the Blue Bus schedule. Lauren directed her to Steve Green, at the Bryn Mawr College Transportation Department.

VI. Moment of Silence